CUSTOMS AND BORDER PROTECTION REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

WHO REPORTS?
Anyone who is on board a vessel entering the United States must report, including U.S. citizens, permanent residents, and aliens.

WHEN MUST A VESSEL REPORT?
All operators of small pleasure vessels must immediately report to CBP if they have:

- Arrived or returned from a foreign location;
- Had contact with a foreign vessel or any vessel returning from a foreign location;
- Received merchandise outside U.S. territorial waters.

Note: Vessels that leave a U.S. port and traverse into international or foreign waters without touching land are NOT required to report arrival upon return.
